AMUSEMENTS.

"WAY DOWN EAST."

The sale of seats for the matinee and night performance of "Way Down East" to-morrow opened yesterday morning with a rush and two large houses are already assured. The company played a two night engagement in Lexington on Wednesday and Thursday, and the Lexington people praised the company and play unstintedly. It is really one of the most delightful plays before the public to-day, and no citizen of Paris should miss seeing it.

Gorton's famous minstrels will appear at the Grand next Tuesday. This company is said to be the most elegantly costumed minstrel organization traveling. The first part presents a most beautiful combination of colors, being draped in solid wine colored plush, with old gold trimmings, while the performers wear costumes of costly silks and satins, the whole forming a most beautiful and harmonious picture. The company possesses an excellent quintette of trained vocalists who render the latest ballads and selections. The instrumental music and the various high class specialties fully sustain the reputation of Gorton's minstrels, and there is no doubt of their being greeted with a crowded house.—Prices: 25, 50 and 75 cents.

Tall seven foot Chas. Pusey who is funny to look at, if he never spoke a line and little Bert St. John the two really humorous comedians will appear at the Grand on Thursday, January 16, with a company of ladies and gentlemen carefully selected from the best stock of entertainers known to the comedy world. Singers, dancers, comedians, comediennes, character actors, acrobatic dancers, male and female will present one of the funniest of musical comedies, "A Run on the Bank." Its play that made Ward and Vokes, two of the most famous comedians of the day, and many say in the hands of Pusey and St. John and their capable company, they out do the former Percy Harold and Company.

Manager Geo. L. Chennell has spared no expense. Scenery all special, costumes the finest money can buy, the prettiest women that could be secured. In fact for an evening's entertainment they've left no stone unturned to make it the best. Prices 25, 50 and 75 cents.

The farce-comedy of "Two Married Men" attracted a good-sized audience at the Grand, on Tuesday night.

A curious fact has just come to light in regard to "A Capitol Comedy," which Mr. Tim Murphy is playing with so much success. The author is Paul Wiltach, and a cousin of his father's, that is, Mr. Wiltach's second cousin, Usomas Ustic Walter's, was the architect of the dome and two wings of the United States Capitol as they stand to-day and as they are pictured in the scenes of "A Capitol Comedy." Mr. Murphy will play an engagement in this city soon.

There are to be some good attractions at the Grand, in this city, during the last half of the season. Among them will be found, "Way Down East," on to-morrow afternoon (matinee) and night; Gorton's Minstrels, on next Tuesday night; A Run on the Bank, on Jan. 16; When We Were Twenty-One, on Jan. 20; A Bachelor's Honeymoon, on Jan. 24; Reaping the Harvest, on Jan. 27; King Dodo, on Jan. 31; A Ragtime Girl, on Feb. 5; Tim Murphy, on Feb. 6; Two Merry Tramps, on Feb. 13; Uncle Hez, on Feb. 24; The Minister's Son, on Feb. 26; The Secret Enemy, on March 5; Tennessee's Pardner, on March 12; A Breezy Time, on March 24; Haverly's Minstrels, on March 27; Heart of Maryland, on April 4; Gus Sun's Minstrels, on April 14; Rabbit's Foot Comedy Co., on April 17; A Poor Relation, April 30th.

Marconi is said to be planning a station ship in mid-ocean to relay wireless messages across the Atlantic and so engage in commercial business. As a result quotations for cable stocks have fallen sharply.

Interest in the voting contest for the most popular young lady of Bourbon county, is still in evidence, and the votes are coming in by mail and handed into the office each day. Up to going to press last night there were something like 600 votes cast. There is a disposition on the part of a great many of our patrons to hold back their ballots in order to vote all of them at one time. They would confer a great favor by casting their votes each week, not later than Saturday, as it will save a great deal of time and labor in the count in this office.

Below will be found the particulars regarding the contest:
